REFORM TAFT'S PARTY WITH CLUB, URGES T. R.

in Four Through Nebraska He Attacks Rosewater as Tool of Leaders.

SCORES WOODROW WILSON

colonel Also Gives Bryan a Lacing-Speaks to Large Audiences.

saved the men who he said stole the Re- cences an nomination from him, attacked Woodrow Wilson.

It was upon Victor Rosewater of Omaha who acted as chairman of the Republican nal Committee, which recommended the recognition of Taft delegates at Chicago, that the Colonel especially visited tornes the State from Oxford, where he made his first talk at 8 o'clock this morning, to and including Omaha he held Rosevater up to public scorn as a tool of Penose. Barnes and others.

The action of the Republican National mmittee at its latest meeting in oustwas utilized by the Colonel to point his quate compensation in case of injuries." Many Progressive Republicans had urged that the Republican party should be reformed from within; but Mr. MAJOR M'NEELY'S DEATH body composed of the "creatures" on the ttee was with a club. Mr. Rooserelt said in part :

The National Committee has seated riklin Murphy was a candidate for egate at large to the Republican mount Convention. The people put him the National has just put him back. seachusetts Mr. Crane ran for delelarge and the people defeated him votes. The people put him out

And already they are behave behaved eful careers. They steal from the nomination and they are glad that they need.

as sentiments were approved both the hanan, who contended that was unconstitutional but of Mr. Buchanan toward he Colonel observed, "is attitude of Mr. Wilson proposals for industrial and thour proposals but he says they thour proposals, but he says they the made effective, and he has no his own to meet the sit-net added the Progressives did to be deterred by the opinions of the professor from inaug-reforms which are essential the working men and · country and therefore for ared, that of the men who the tolonel insisted, is theory of government which the of position of the Jerse: Progressive proposal commercialism. We merciless spirit of comthe great cities. Chicago, i New York, for a wage it of them to live on."

maska stands in doubt. argely because the extent The Progressives, who to the Republican party, publican yote, but the balance wrats are confident that they

Wilson. They are more by then they have been for Her Divorce Suit. the reactionaries who emination of Gov. Harmon imiliate Bryan, have been the greed of patronage ability of backing Wilson, made Wilson's nominill campaign the State cruelty.

welt went to-night to Kansas. be was 91 years of age and scantily attired, burning to the convention of 1860 she has been ill since.

TAX DATE October 1

GUARANTEED MORTGAGES netting 41/2% TAX EXEMPT LAWYERS MORTGAGE CO.

Capital and Surplus $8,500,000 59 Liberty St., Manhattan. 184 Montague St., Brooklyn.

which nominated Lincoln. "I shall vote incoln. *I shall vote age of many the processity for just a processity for just an experiment of Gov. Without the first of ine Republican National Committee in Little Missouri in the cow country," he seating as members men who had been said. "We had to get a bunch of Hill in Democratic national conventions ng members for disloyalty and replacing danger which a brakeman must run. m with dyed in the wool standpatters They should have every chance for ademembers men who were beaten in the members last spring. In New Jersey Medical Examiner Not Sure National Committee put him back.

It is people threw Mr. Mulvane be National Committee has put Brigade N. G. S. N. Y., whose body was found vesterday in bed in a room at the cratic State committee and the county.

We carried the State with a Brigade N. G. S. N. Y., whose body was found vesterday in bed in a room at the cratic State committee and the county.

HEEL MARK ON PILLOW Hotel Thorndyke, a small hotel in the chairmen. The day before the function, West End. It was not until to-day that however, Senator O'Gorman's friends in ople who expressed their will Major McNeely's death became generally New York telegraphed to the Onondaga un der the name of A. Nuis. and to behave worse than they went with Major McNeely to his room and Syracuse was jammed to the roof. dready, shows almost genius lighted the gas for him. All the windows and doors were closed and the gas was proprietors of the Onondaga provided cutures that glory in their shame turned full on when the body was found. accommodations for Senator O'Gorman, And these Na- Medical Examiner McGrath to-day said and when he arrived in that city that that he could not decide whether or not night Mr. Murphy was unaware of the death was accidental. Identification was purpose of Senator O'Gorman's visit. w they are stealing from the made through letters and a membership Major McNeely's pockets.

his address in the City Auditorium, known men in the New York State Nationa Wilson and Gov. Dix were to speak. This d at Omaha, where he spoke to an audi- Guard. He was 39 years old. He came was quietly arranged without the knowlto Albany from Akron, Erie county, in edge of Mr. Murphy or of the Democratic The crowd cheered his hits at Rosewater. 1893 as a clerk in the Adjutant-General's State committee and county chairmen.

the crowd cheered his hits at Rosewater the conduct of the conduct of that representative of the conduct of that representative of the conduct of that representative of the company Lincoln and Rosewater, he observed at Howard. In the observed at Howard. In the observed at Howard. In the funds a sergeant. On the dishort of the organization in 1898 he represents the conductive of the condu ciation of the State and served on various, boards appointed to revise the regulations. He had returned from the fair grounds Major McNeely had not been in good and was taking a bath in the hotel. Later and was taking a bath in the hotel. Major McNeely had not been in good health since the mandevres in Connecticut last month. He suffered from promaine poisoning while going there with Gen. Lester and was compelled to return home.

mother, three brothers and two sisters, who live in New York city.

BURSTING BOILER RUINS HOME. of all the people of discussed Mr. Wilson's a the limitations of governmented out that before the Family Is Absent.

theid that interference with the interior of the nome of that is sent an invasion of personal libola led, that of the slaves? N. J., was wrecked early yesterday morning by the explosion of a copper loyal to the Democratic organization.

Water boller in the kitchen. The explosion sheek the neighborhood and candidate for Governor nominated at the colonel insisted is cory of government which solve for hum to carry ples of the Progressives to find their home in ruin and police-beauties of New York and their home in ru afford to remit the most kitchen was found dead.

to be put at the mannercialism. We forgot to turn off the gas before leavening Democratic conditions in Everything the kitchen was demolished. The partition between the kitchen and the dining room was torn down. The plaster in nearly all the and this will be the first one he has missed and this will be the first one he has missed that the receiver of stolen rooms had fallen and the furniture in thirty years and more. He said he did real estate affairs of the railroad comgenerally was smashed. The building was moved several inches on the founon the two old parties dation and the piano in the two old parties dation and the piano in the piano in the Progressives, who shifted ten feet from its usual place. dation and the piano in the parlor was Mr. Oliver said it would take $5,909 against Econovelt that most upport Wifeen in order to des SET ON HOT STOVE, WIFE SAYS.

to fix up the house.

MURPHY BREAKS WITH O'GORMAN?

Continued from First Page.

New York's member of the committee on

He was prevailed upon to alter his plans in this respect, however, on the advice of William F. Sheehan, whose argument was in effect that, notwithstanding any differences that may have arisen between Senator O'Gorman and laws concerning the rights of rail- Champ Clark, the fact remained that Mr. he middle West, the birthplace of accidents not due to their own negli- States Senator for the State of New York progressivism. Col. Theodore Roosevelt gence, the Colonel lapsed into reminis- and that the dignity of the place on the beeves shipped, and as that was before the days of the present system of the on resolutions with the exception of Major McNeely's death became generally New York telegraphed to the Onondaga known. He had registered at the hotel Hotel in Syracuse for reservations. None were to be had, as it was State Fair week The hotel clerk said to-day that he and every hotel and boarding house in However, by skirmishing about the

All this time, however, friends of Senae members of the new National card of the Albany lodge of Elks found in tor O'Gorman were besieging State Fair Commissioner Driscoll to give the Senator ALBANY, Sept. 20.—Major Frank A. an opportunity to speak at the fair grounds incoin, where 4,000 people listened McNeely was one of the most widely the next day, the day on which Gov.

was evident from conversations with r. Murphy that he had no knowledge Me was advised to take a rest, but insisted on sticking to his desk. A week ago Gen. Lester urged him again to drop work, but he said he would hang on for a while longer and then take a vacation. Friends who saw him at the railroad station on the state of implied opposition to Division to the state of the state of implied opposition to Division to the state of the state of implied opposition to Division to the state of implied opposition to Division to the state of the state of implied opposition to Division to the state of the state of implied opposition to Division to the state of the stat at Syracuse has especially contributed to the friction between himself and Mr. Murphy.

Mr. Murphy's argument on Mr. O'Gor. Boston to visit friends.

Major McNeely is survived by his to Mr. Murphy's intimate friends, is that Senator O'Gorman had no right, no political authority, to follow in the footsteps. Wilson in opposing Gov. Dix's renomination.

Gov. Dix, it is pointed out, is a Demo-cratic Governor, loyal to the Democratic organization and that, while Gov. Wilson's attitude was a matter for his own personal concern, Senator O'Gorman, a member of Tammany and Democratic United State Senator for the State of New York not have spoken, even by inference, against the renomination of a Democratic plosion shock the neighborhood and plosion shock the neighborhood and plosion shock the neighborhood and brought out the inhabitants on the factories and sweat shops, and women they employ.

Mr. Oliver, who is in business in man, just as Dix has been called Murphy's men guarding the debris. No one was hurt, but a small dog locked in the kitchen was found dead.

According to Mr. Oliver, the maid the President Wilson's election to the Presidency the national campaigners in the Fifth Avenue Building declared yesterday that the Senator would continue to the President Wilson's spokesman on all

It became known last night that William not care to go as a delegate and had made known his wishes weeks ago... Mr. Sheehan left the Baltimore conven-tion several days before Wilson's nomina-

Albany county he was absolutely dependent on being sent as a delegate to State and national conventions on Patrick E. McCabe, the Democratic leader of Albany county Mr. McCabe always sent Mr. Hill as a delegate.

On the Republican side United States Senator Frank Hiscock, in his day, could never have gone as a delegate to State or national conventions without the consent of Francis Hendricks, the Republican eader of Onondaga county.

Recurring to the O'Gorman episode eader of Onondaga county.

Recurring to the O'Gorman episode of vesterday, there were Tainmany men and Democrats up-State who recalled that ex-Supreme Court Justice D-Cady Herrick of Albany was not renominated for Governor in 1998, a year in which he could win, mainly because of a belief that Herrick as Governor could build up a separate State organization; that he had the ability and experience to build an organization which would be inimical to Tammany control in the State.

Then too there are many Democrats

HOLDS MAN AS BURGLAR

Chased From Loft, He Jumped

he declared openly that Edward Murphy, Jr., of Troy should not be the Democratic United States Senator, Mr. Cleveland advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred advocating the election of W. Bourke Cockran. But that episode occurred to the Murphy, Jr., of Troy should not seem to the provi Five alleged burglars, said to have been making the rounds of a twelve story building at 143 West Twentieth street, were discovered by the police that led over back fences and through the windows of adjacent apartment houses, and which aroused most of the tenants, two of the men were caught. One of them was identified by a V shaped cut on a rubber heel attached to one shoe. On the pillow of a bed over which fire escape to the ground. In response to their whistles a detachment of reserves came over from the West Seventeenth street station. Lieut. McIvory ordered Democratic voter will have two ballots

McNulty, who occupies the room, was awakened by the men scrambling across her bed. Her screams brought Miss Evelyn Hudson, who lives in the next room, into the hall. One of the men seized throw her over the banister into Jordan was caught a few minutes later Jordan was caught a few minutes later by Patrolman Straney. He was walking slowly across the street, but was breathing slowly across the street, but was breathing heavily heavily. He told the policeman that he was suffering from asthma, but later on on his heel was discovered the notch corresponded to the mark on Dr McNufty's pillow.

LEASES LAND FOR HOTEL? Report Says Syndicate Will Build Near P. R. R. Terminal.

There was a well received report through West Side real estate offices yesterday that the Pennsylvania Railroad had leased the half block of land bounded by Gimbel Bors.' store, Seventh avenue, and Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets to a recently formed syndicate which will erect there the largest hotel in the city. From nobody interested in the pany could confirmation of the report

Members of the firm of the Douglas tion several days before Wilson's nomination and returned to his summer home at Roshyn. He was greatly nettled over the turn of affairs in Baltimore, and was particularly incensed because the New York delegation, until the last moment did not send an orator to the platform and resent the utterances, the slurs, taunts and flaunts of William J. Bryan.

As a matter of fact, De Lancey Nicell.

Members of the firm of the Douglas Robinson, Charles S. Brown Comeany Wassersby storokally negotiated the lease and earned a commission in the neighborhood of $80,000, would have nothing to say about the matter, while none of the officers of the tirm of the Douglas Robinson, Charles S. Brown Comeany Passersby storowally negotiated the lease and earned the triangle. The probability of the property of the firm of the Douglas Robinson, Charles S. Brown Comeany Passersby storowally negotiated the lease and earned the triangle. The probability of the Alleges Other Forms of Cruelty in the florest state of fact, De Lancey Nicoll Maint of William J. Bryan.

As a matter of fact, De Lancey Nicoll was quite as increased as Mr. Sheehan over the charges against Julius Devalation the charges against Julius Devalation as delegation that John B. Stanchfield was put to the front to assail Bryan.

She alleges that on Christmas Day of last year her husband sat her down on the red hot cook stove while she was on the red hot cook stove while she was put to the front to assail Ryan.

She alleges that on Christmas Day of net to be more powerful than a United she has been ill since.

Her Divorce Suit.

Stream, Hi., Sept. 20.—That he put this matter. So were many other notable was quite as increased as Mr. Sheechan over the charges against Julius Devalation in the charges against Julius Devalation. The neighbor-hot has sheen and took Lyons along bewould talk. The railroad only this week feet adjoining Gimbels' to square out this matter. So were many other notable was quite as increased as Mr. Sheechan over the shoulder a policeman arrived, but McInerny, the detectives say. Just as the Irish lad slapped the other on the shoulder a policeman arrived, but McInerny, the detectives say. Just as the Irish lad slapped the other on the shoulder a policeman arrived on the shoulder a policeman arrived on the shoulder a policeman arrived. The shoulder a policeman arrived the boys ducked and 500 Brooklynites got home to dinner a bit late.

The inactivity of the Pennsylvania in improving the large plots it owns all about the big station has called for harsh comments to work to be stated to manufact the shoulder a policeman arrived on the shoulder a policeman arrived on the shoulder a policeman arrived.

Alleged Assallants of Salesman Held.

The inactivity of the Pennsylvania in improving the large plots it owns all about the big station has called for harsh comment by other owners in the neighbor how of the manufacture of the shoulder a policeman arrived on the shoulder a policeman arrived

of Two Ballots on Election Day.

NO HEADQUARTERS VISITS

Leader of Democracy in State Keeps Aloof Contrary to crats got together and worked in unison. The convention fights were forgoiten.

In the present instance, however, there is almost serious friction between the almost serious friction between the Chased From Loft, He Jumped Through Window Into Woman Doctor's Room.

Five alleged burglars, said to have recalled that this year the national ticket and the State ticket stand alone, each being independent of the other and yet both sides admitted that the nomination rear of the building.

The policemen scrambled down the of a strong candidate for Governor would be a strong candidate came over from the West Seventeenth street station. Lieut. McIvory ordered them to surround the block.

The pursued ones, scaling the fences that divided the tiny back yards, attempted to make their way to the street through the apartment houses that line Twenty-first street. They yelled to the frightened tenants that Italians were after them.

Four of the men suddenly plunged through the rear window of the house at 156 West Twenty-first street. Dr. Eleanor McNulty, who occupies the room, was awakened by the men scrambling across sult with him, as was necessary in previous campaigns when the Presidential electors were on the State ticket, indicated a clear-

Daly was discovered by Detective Mar-tin while hiding in a fence corner behind the house at 144 West Twenty-first street. Jordan was caught a few minutes later have on the national ticket. It is pre-sumable that the Democrat who goes to the polls to vote for Gov. Wilson on elec-tion day will also desire to cast a vote for the Democratic State ticket So each side, the Democratic national and the Democratic State folk, are talking independently these days. But be added that the Democratic any further interference with their plans. INTERRACE MARATHON.

State campaigners are inclined to Green Wins in City Hall Park Contest-Many Halted to See.

For nearly an hour yesterday evening hundreds of homegoing Brooklynites were entertained in City Hall Park by a roller skating Marathon in which the contestants were a Jewish boy, a smaller Italian boy and a still smaller Irish boy. The last named won.

a grass triangle northwest of the City Hall. It began at 5 o'clock. Each boy started from a corner of the triangle, and when one reached another and touched him the boy who was caught ersby stopped to look, and soon a crowd a dozen deep was packed around the triangle. The inevitable drunken man appeared to cheer the boys on. The Italian boy was touched first and the Jewish and Irish boys kept on for ten

This Then Is To Tell You About Our New Store And Its Newer Kind of Clothes

Clothes made expressly for us by one of New York's most exclusive and best tailormen. The creations of a master-a man who has London and its newest productions at his Coats that appear to be moulded to the form of the wearer; soft, graceful, distinctive, entirely devoid of artificial means of stiffening or shaping-wonderfully clever tailoring indeed has gone into their making.

Strangers in Our Midst, come and see our new store, wholly different from any in your home town, and this different kind of clothing-the best that New York is showing to-day-at prices that men who understand and appreciate good clothes will recognize to be right.

$45.00 to $15.00 Brill Brothers BROADWAY AT 49TH STREET

THIEF SHOT AFTER LEAP FROM SLEUTHS' ROOM

He Uppercuts Detective and Dives Through Headquarters Window.

An Innocent Bystander Is Hit Before Fugitive Is Brought

William McInerny, out of prison nine lays after serving a sentence for burglary jumped out of a window.

He was followed by a volley of pistol shots while the Headquarters windows spilled detectives into the street.

Melnerny went through the windows spilled detectives into the street.

inst lieutenant and on December 30 of the same year he was chosen captain. On the offer in 1955 Capt. Mekely was made major of Vr. Byan that the Progressives with in the Hiawatha room of the Hidson, Capt. Mekely to the some contained in two platforms could be interested and the commanded for several years the himself and fon. Lester continued him in that the himself and fon. Lester continued him in that gang of burning the progressive search of two platforms could be the two platforms could be two platforms or the two platforms could be two platforms and the commanded two platforms could be two platforms and the commanded two platforms are two platforms are two platforms are two platforms are two platforms and the commanded two platforms are two platforms are two p apartments of Mrs. Margaret Ellis at 100

West 124th street. Pelledreow's companion in the burglary escaped after running through the parsonage of the Lenox back Avenue Reformed Church. The description of the man who got away tallied well with that of McInerny on file at Police Headquarters. The detectives knew that Pelledreow's friends were often to be found in the neighborhood of Thirty-eighth street and Seventh avenue. They scouted around there Thursday and heard that a "big job" was to be pulled off that night and that the Pelledreow crowd was to rendezvous at Columbus avenue and Eighty-sixth street. The Central Office men watched that neighborhood all night, but either they had been misinformed or word that they were on the trail had gone abroad, for nothing happened. They did, how-ever, pick up another report that sent into court one by one, gather near the said that they could not tell who fired the stairway by which prisoners are brought into the court room and open fire as Pelledreow came into court in charge of two policemen. The detectives, who say that they were sufficiently convinced of the possibility of the attempt to keep the court one of Barrett was sent to court in the Elmira Reformatory. The police say that McInterposibility of the attempt to keep to Clinton prison by Juder Passibility. on the job after their all night vigil, were Gus and James Riley, John Fitzpatrick, Edward Burgess and John Devaney. They found only the usual loungers and regulars at the court when the morning session opened and the Riley brothers went out to take a look about.

The Harlem police court is at 121st street and Sylvan place, just off Third avenue. Two blocks further up Third The race was on the concrete around avenue the detectives met McInerny and Thomas Lyons, who, they say, has served a prison sentence in Massachusetts, although he is the son of a well known physician in Lynn.

The detectives waited a short time to see if anybody else would join McInerny and Lyons and then arrested them. The wanted McInerny because of his possible connection with the burglary at Mrs. Ellis's home and took Lyons along because of his record. Neither man was were taken to the identification bureau on the first floor of the building; where finger print and Bertillon records are kept. This room is in the south end of the building and three of its windows face trans at that point.

Detective James Kiley, with McInerny in tow, led the procession. He ranged McInerny alongside the desk at which Detective Edward Shelvy, a finger print and Bertillon expert, was scated and be-

Mchierty Biologisto Detective Edward Shelvy, a tinger print and Bertillon expert, was seated and becan the work of identifying McInerny by the latter's record Meantime the other detectives and Lyons stood back against the wail some little distance away.
McDearny answered a question or two;

BULLETS ZIPPED

the wall some little distance away.

McInerry answeredia question or two; while his eyes wandered to the large windew with the sash thrown wide open and looking so inviting. Suddenly and with precision his fist caught Riley under the chin. The detective tumbled backward, bringing in against a rack of fuger print. bringing up against a rack of finger print records with force enough to knock the breath out of him, and McInerny made a quick turn around the desk and dashed for the window. As he fled he brushed against the burglar alarm apparatus in-s ailed to protect the identification bureau against burglars, and there was a peal of and under arrest on suspicion that he had taken part in another, landed an effective right hook on the jaw of a detective at Police Headquarters yesterday and right hook on the jaw of a detective at Police Headquarters yesterday and licked his chair aside and was after him.

spilled detectives into the street.

McInerny was caught after a short dash down Baxter street. A bullet had hit him in the left shoulder after passing under the arm of his captor. The wound may kill him.

The streets in the vicinity of Police Headquarters were well filled at the time by factory workers out for the lunch hour.

McInerny went through the window pavement. He struck squarely on top of vincenzo Garofola, a sixteen-year-old vincenzo G get out of the way quickly enough and stopped a bullet with his left hand. He tumbled over and in falling broke the wrist of the wounded hand. The bullets were zipping all about Shelvy as he closed in on McInerny, but the detective hadn't time to stop and protest. He kept right on and caught to with McInerny in the control of t the detective hadn't time to stop and protest. He kept right on and caught up with McInerny just as the prisoner was climbing to the top of a packing box. from which he hoped to climb to the window of a factory building on the west side of Baxter street. McInerny was still in plain sight of the firing squad and as Shelvy reached for his man a bullet passed under his arm and hit McInerny in the back.

"It was a mighty close call," said Shelvy afterward. "I saw the dust fly out of McInerny's coat and there was the bullet hole just below where I had grabbed him."

Meanwhile Lyons, McInerny's fellow prisoner, had been left quite to himself in the detention bureau. If he had any idea of using his moment's freedom to idea of using his moment's freedom to scape he didn't get the chance, however for Capt. Allen ran in just then and went McInerny, the pedler boy whose leg was broken, and the tailor who stopped a bullet were all carried into the basement at Police Headquarters, and ambulances were called from St. Vincent's and Gou-verneur Hospitals. McInerny chatted pleasantly with the detectives and smoked cigarettes until the doctor came. He was told that his wound was serious and asked for a priest. Father Sullivan, one five of them hurrying up to the Harlem court early yesterday morning.

The story which stoolpigeons brought is reached by Palledroow's men would drop the policy of the po to Clinton prison by Judge Rosalsky for taking part in robbing the home of Arnold Kohn of 18 East Ninety-fifth street in

Ask your Physician VICHY CELESTINS